Our Value

Our Team

Uptime is a passionate group of dreamers, doers and builders from 20 countries. We bring our experience and deep sense of purpose from innovative media and technology brands as designers, engineers and entrepreneurs.

Our Tech

Uptime's AI and proprietary technology allows for agile content identification, scaling, and publishing. Our unique multimodal format is scientifically proven to assist learning and knowledge retention.

Our Backers

Uptime has raised $19m from leading global investors including Chad Hurley (YouTube Founder), Huda Kattan (Huda Beauty founder), Chris Messina (#Hashtag founder), Lord Alliance (N Brown PLC), Sir Terry Leahy (ex Tesco CEO), Jon Claydon (ex Omnicom), Mark Knopfler (Dire Straits) and Facebook executives.

Mission

To inspire anyone to learn and thrive in our fast-changing world.

Vision

We fuse great technology with human curation to create micro-learning experiences from leading books, courses and other knowledge sources - in tappable five minute stories. We see a future where this knowledge is accessible, fun and social.

By focusing simultaneously on social impact and long- term profitability, we're creating an ecosystem where all of our stakeholders will enjoy the benefits of sustainable growth and personal fulfilment.

Why Now?

We have limited time
We deliver knowledge and value fast so you can get on with your life. We're the digital antidote to addictive tech, endless search and doom-scrolling.

We have information overload
Uptime cuts through the noise by carefully selecting, distilling and delivering actionable knowledge from only the most reputable and relevant sources, everyday.

We have limited resources
Books and courses are expensive and rarely completed. We provide an engaging experience so your money and effort aren't wasted. And the full content is only one click away.

We have limited attention spans
Youth are more distracted than ever and find it hard to focus. Our tappable, "multimodal" text, image and audio format is fast, fun and scientifically proven to aid retention.

TechCrunch abc NBC CBS FEATURED ON Product Hunt

"Uptime has a crucial role to play in making education and knowledge more accessible and affordable. I'm delighted that Who Cares Wins is featured on the platform, helping to spread the message to more people that they can have a positive impact on the world if they choose to do so."

Lilly Cole, environmentalist and author of What Cares Wins

"Uptime has quickly become one of the few apps I open and use every day. It's brilliant that companies like Uptime are making knowledge more accessible to people across the world."

Mark Knopfler OBE
singer-songwriter and lead guitarist in Dire Straits

"Not everyone can wander into a magic shop and find the person that will change the trajectory of their life. But with an app like Uptime, they can more easily access the books and documentaries that could give them the inspiration and motivation to take the first steps into making that big change."

James Doty, MD, Stanford professor and author of into The Magic Shop
