Womencycles.com

We live in the age of chronic illness

4932 symptoms that uniquely/predominantly affect women

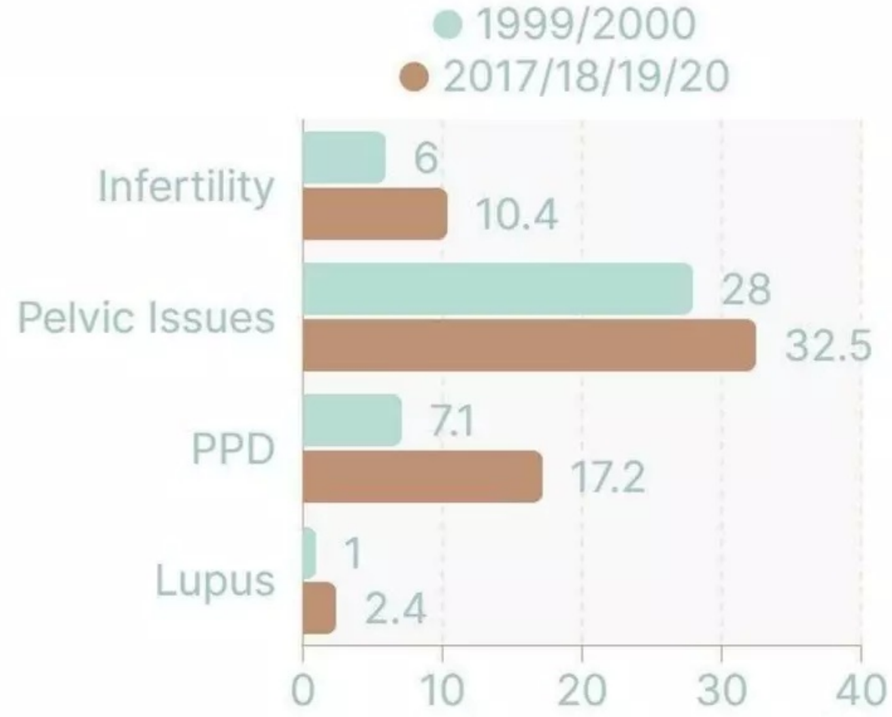

Despite the proliferation of health content online, wellness and health trends, women's chronic & life quality issues are on a rise.

Band-Aid Symptoms

Western Medicine is the wrong toolbox to use for majority of these issues as most treatments do not provide long-term relief

Outdated/Dangerous

Lack of research leaving us with solutions from 30-50+ years ago that in some cases can be dangerous

Science-Based Natural Healing

Root Cause Health

Understand the root cause of the symptoms.

No Pills. No Surgeries.

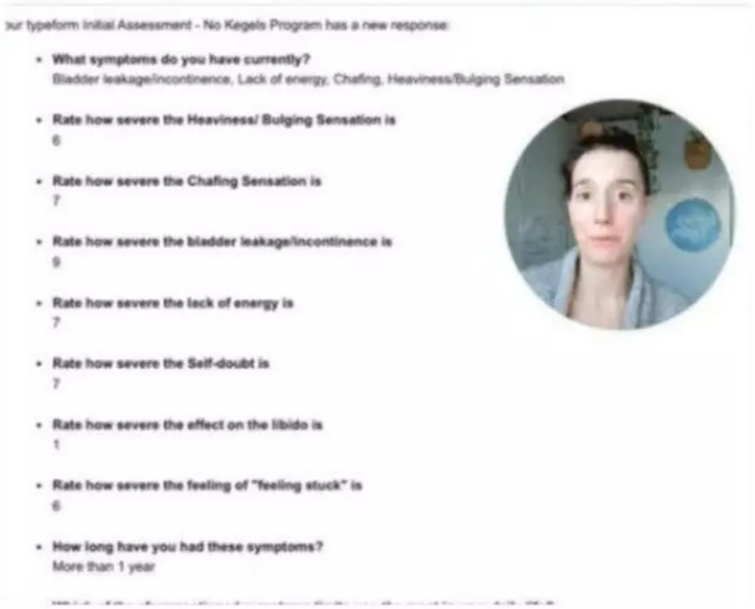

Natural solutions that are science-based and non- invasive.

Healing, not managing

Find ways to not just reverse but heal.

Unfair Advantages: A strong wedge to build from

Target Group of 45+ Women that are willing & able

Our customers have money, time & willingness to work on their unresolved issues

Many connected conditions to expand into

Elder women have many chronic & life quality issues for us to naturally expand into

Position of combining science & natural healing

Being let down by the medical system, our solutions are very attractive to their eyes

Timing with rising systematic apathy and conversation

Fueled by influencers, BBC & Netflix make the timing to talk about tabooed issues perfect

Value Drivers to move our unit economics from good to great

1

Cross-Sell into more symptoms

Launching new products that are complementary to pelvic floor health - e.g, menopause issues, thyroid related challenges and more.

2

MasterClass for Women's Health

Onboard influencers and creators, similar to the Masterclass model to build more exclusive content, affiliate partnerships and differentiation

3

Localisation in EU Languages

Our content has demand in German, French, Spanish & Nordic Languages. Being a purely digital practice, we can scale significantly quicker

4
