We are on the cusp of a significant shift when organizations will rely far more on an on-demand workforce

The world has gone freelance

The growth of the freelance workforce is three times faster than the traditional workforce.

These Freelancers are the highest skilled individuals

But...

The corporate challenge

On-demand talent is a one off, non standard process owned by no one in corporate

- Recruiting
- On-Boarding
- Budgets & Payments
- Corp. Policies
- Compliance
