Coffee is moving upmarket. Artisanal roasters are leading the revolution.

Gourmet coffee now accounts for the majority of cups.

But supermarket shelves are still stocked with commodity coffee.

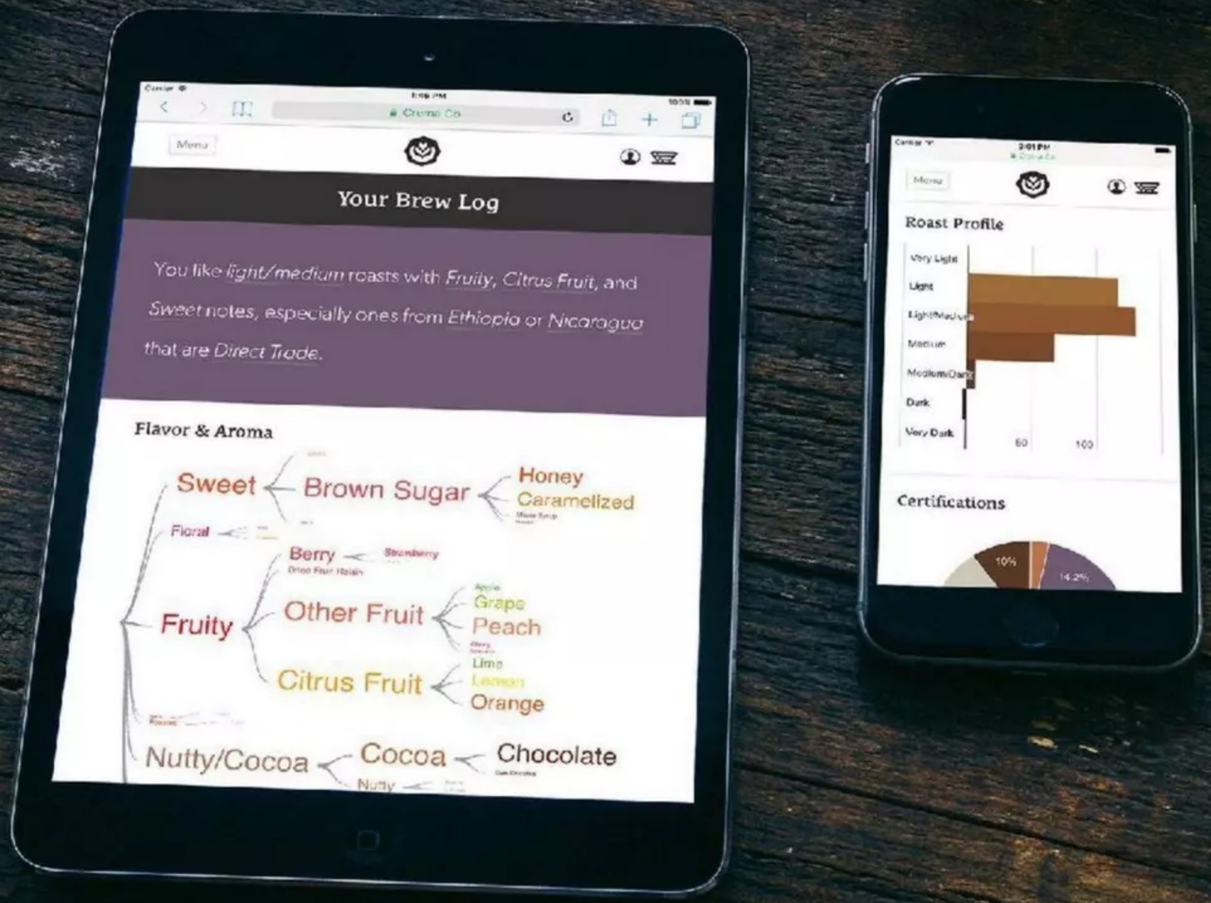

5 conglomerates control 80% of the $14bn US CPG coffee market.

Crema.co makes it easy to subscribe to top coffees from craft roasters.

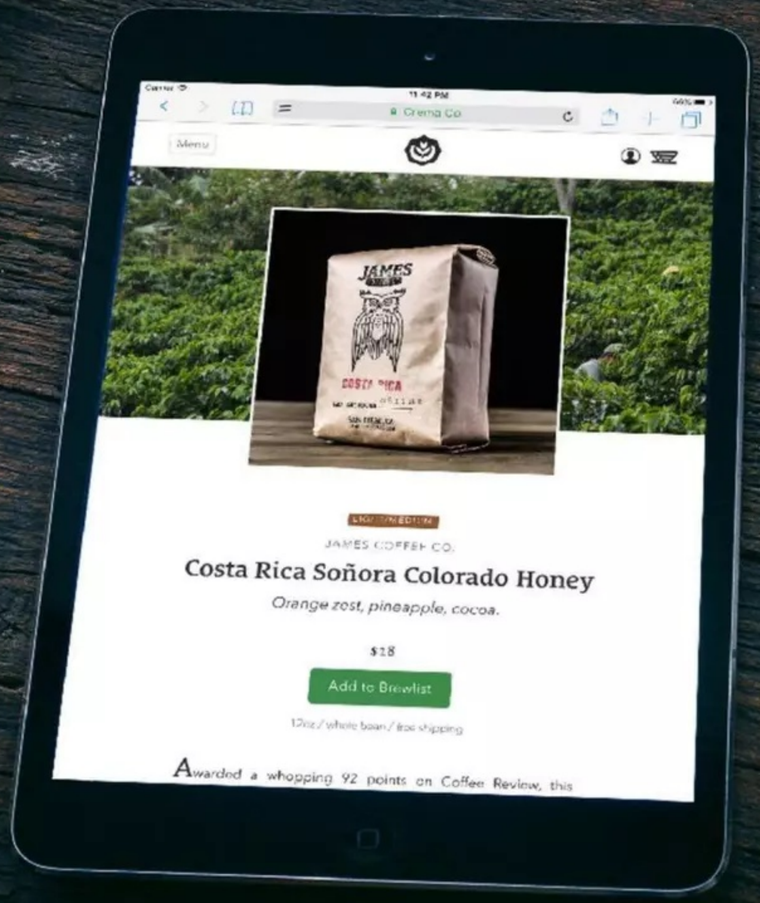

As you order and rate coffees, we learn the characteristics present in the coffees you like...

Help you discover coffees that match your unique taste preferences...

And learn the story of the people behind the beans.

Specialty coffee for at-home consumption is a $5bn market in the US.
