The landscape is changing not only how people shop, but also what people shop

Clear business opportunity

Food is by far the largest consumer segment...

...where the sector is only just starting to move online

Clear moral opportunity

We're building a business on the intersection of two mega trends

Consumer spend moving to online

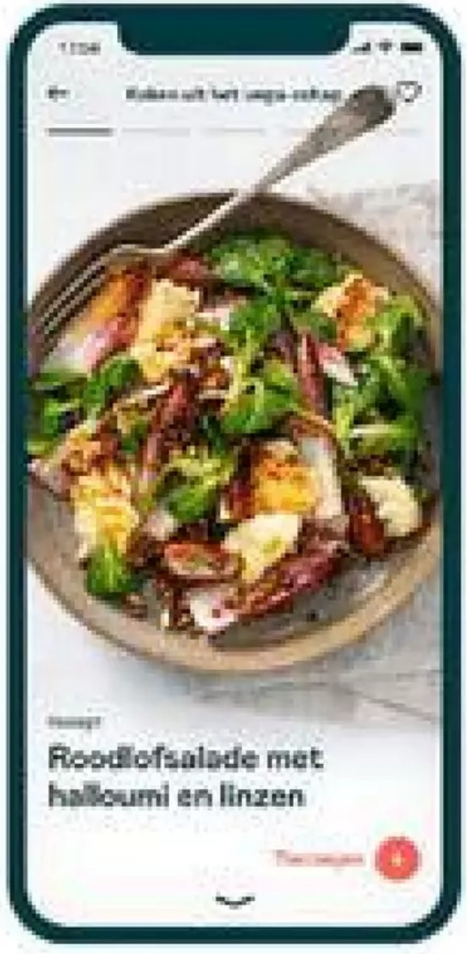

Surge in consumer demand for sustainable & fresh food

Crisp is the most awarded Dutch brand in 2019/'20

"The complete experience is consistent - from using the app to delivering the products to your door. The whole look and feel of the product is very well thought through. Usually you would just see design of just the app but in this case, all touch points are well designed. The app is very very high quality - clear and user friendly"
