FORMEL Skin

The global dermatology clinic online

Yolanda Dukoana, FORMEL Skinpatient for 7 months in treatment for acne and hyperpigmentation

Over 1.5bn people globally, sufferfrom dermatological conditions that can be diagnosed and treated remotely.

FORMEL Skin offers faster access to quality medical care, better treatment outcomes, and countless hours saved for both patient and doctor.

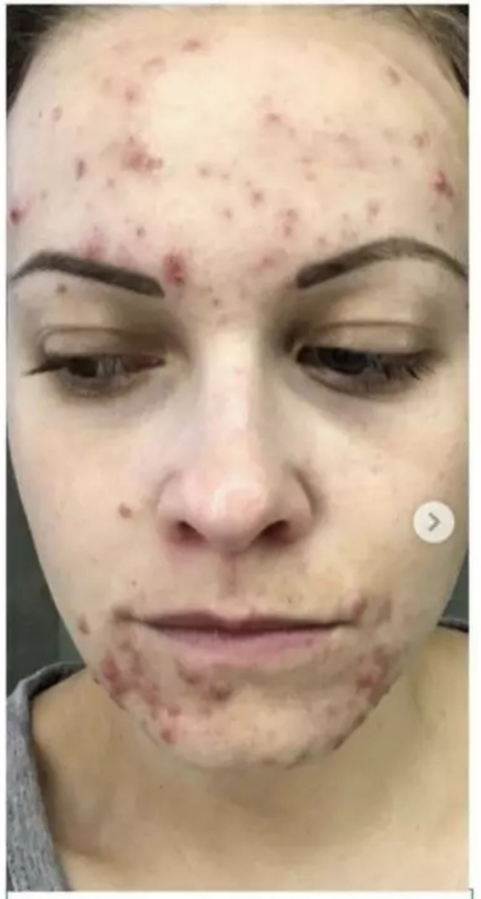

Dr. Sarah Bechstein,
Founder of FORMEL Skin

Skin conditions are often lifelong, require regular treatment and heavily impact quality of life

Patients today are underserved by a system that is expensive, time consuming and inefficient.

BEFORE

Yahna - Dec. 2020

Lack of Access

Structural undersupply of dermatologists

No Guidance

Lack of expert support leading to static, unsuccessful treatments

Inefficient Market

Doctorsare inefficiently reimbursed for offline treatments

FORMEL Skin's medical treatments solve these problems

Instantly Accessible

Quick access to treatments with less effort, resulting in greater patient initiative and autonomy

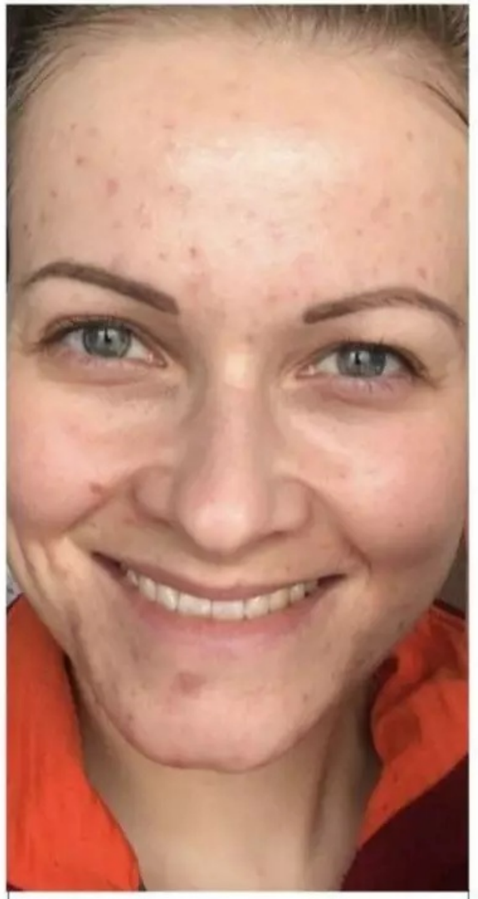

Personalized

Individualized medical treatments to drive treatment compliance

Evidence-based

Better medical decisions through data collection; compounded RX- and medical OTC products

AFTER

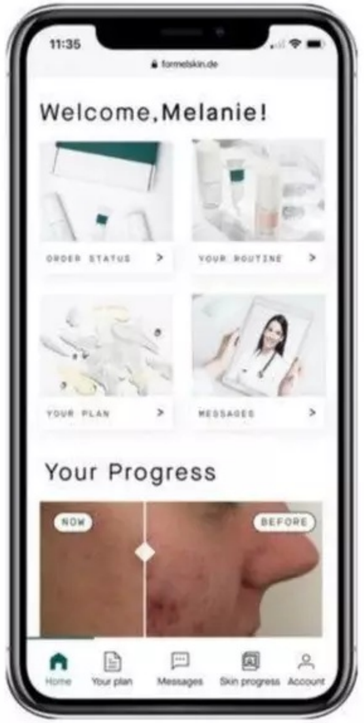

Yahna - May. 2021

Yahna, 30, created an unsolicited Instagram-fan account to show her progress. Same as many other patients.

"After just 5 months with FORMEL Skin, it is a joy for me now to look in the mirror every day."

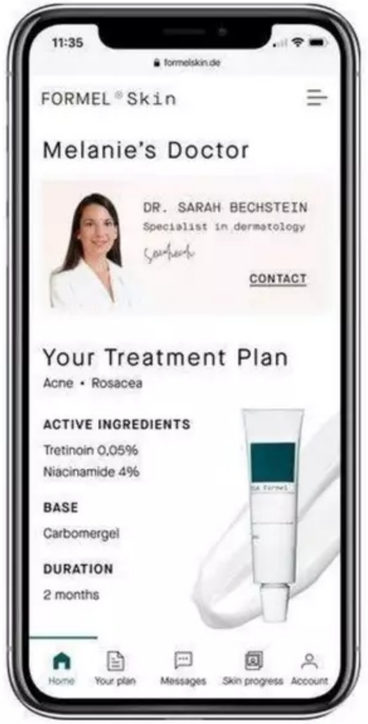

We have developed a highly effective treatment approach for a broad set of skin conditions

Personalised medical treatments that lead to unmatched results.

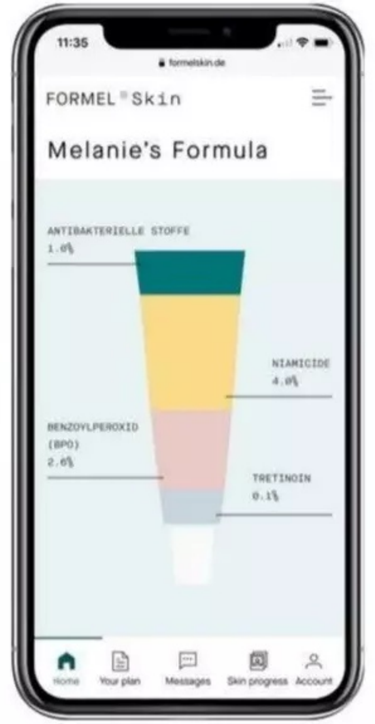

Digital companion

Digital treatment support to improve patient engagement and efficacy of treatment

Superior medical service

Our in-house doctors provide personalized, medical services

Individualized medical products

Patients get individualized evidence-based RX & OTC products

Our patients are longing for a trusted skin health partner who accompanies them throughout their entire life

FORMEL Skin is this partner.
